

- Advance Notice of Provision of Benefits for Medical Treatment, etc.

This document notifies you that benefits for medical treatment or the like will be provided to you. Provision of the benefits will begin on the specified start date, so please present your Individual Number Card or National Health Insurance eligibility certificate when you receive treatment at a medical institution. If you do not pay your insurance premiums without any special circumstances, you may be required to temporarily cover the full amount of your medical expenses under the “special medical expense” system.
